

Martha's Day School

Positive Discipline

We use re-direction for disciplining younger children. Rather than scolding them we encourage them to do other more positive activity.

When they are old enough, say 18 months, we use time out for misbehavior. We have a specified spot for them to sit quietly facing the group for 1 minute for each year of their age.